Voice: Classical (Competitive and Non-Competitive)

A selection may be used in one class only.

Even though the Royal Conservatory of Music (RCM) allows one selection at a higher level, the RBMF requires that all selections be performed at the current grade level. All entries must be at the same level/grade.

Participants are limited to one selection per class unless otherwise noted.
Songs may be transposed to suit the voice.

Any use of photocopied music by the performer or accompanist may result in disqualification. Accompanists must show their original music to the secretary before playing.

No music theatre selections are permitted in the Voice Classical section except for selections included in the RCM syllabus List C or List D. Pop, rock and jazz selections should be entered in the Own Choice category.

In order to be considered for a scholarship in Voice Classical, the Canadian selection must be performed in a Voice Classical Canadian Class (category: Canadian Composer-Classical). The Canadian selection cannot be performed in a Voice Music Theatre Class.

Voice Classical festival participants who wish to be considered for Provincial recommendation must register in at least one graded voice class (category: List A; category: List B; category: List C; category: Concert Class).

Participants who aspire to a recommendation to Provincials are encouraged to enter in two or more classes in their category. This will ensure the adjudicator can accurately assess the artistic level of the participant.

Note that Musical Theatre, Popular Music and Operetta selections are not eligible as Classical Voice Provincial selections (even though they are listed in the RCM syllabus).
