

Voice: Music Theatre (Competitive and Non-Competitive)

Competitors will be judged on the total performance, including selection, interpretation and program arrangement with regard to contrast, appropriateness and suitability.

Contrasting selections from different composers are encouraged.

A selection may be used in one class only.

Participants are limited to one selection per class unless otherwise noted.
Songs may be transposed to suit the voice.

The Festival Committee reserves the right to disallow any selections that are deemed inappropriate, either in style or content.

All selections should be age and gender appropriate.

Selections that are primarily patter (spoken) (i.e. Over the Moon - Rent) will not be allowed.

Minimum props and costumes are encouraged providing change can be made quickly between numbers. Costumes and props will NOT be judged.

Please note that costume change times must be included in performance times.

Any use of photocopied music by the performer or accompanist may result in disqualification.

Accompanists must show their original music to the secretary before playing.

Internet purchases must show a separate receipt for each copy purchased.

All non-competitive categories will be labelled to indicate this status.

In order to be considered for a scholarship in Voice Music Theatre, the Canadian selection must be performed in the Voice Music Theatre Canadian Composer class. The Canadian selection cannot be performed in a Voice Classical class.

Participants who aspire to a recommendation to Provincials are encouraged to enter in two or more classes in their category. This will ensure the adjudicator can accurately assess the artistic level of the participant.
